

IMPERIA WINTER REGATTA 2005

Imperia, 2005 November, 2nd

The new website www.i-w-r.com of the 2005 Imperia Winter Regatta is online now. The event will take place starting 8th December to 11th December in Imperia, Italy and it's hosted for following classes: 470 (M&F), 420, Laser Standard (M), Laser Radial (F), L'Equipe. It's an ISAF grade 3 event for 470 class, and a recognised international event for 420 and L'equipe classes. This edition will enclose for the first time also Laser classes

The 2005 Imperia Winter Regatta new website www.i-w-r.com, completely renewed, contains the Notice of Race and Entry Forms as well as a schedule of the events and details about accommodation. It will also be possible make the registration to the event directly from the website, that will be the best and easy way to join the event. It enclose also other tourist information and the event history. Results will be available online during the races, updated day per day.

Imperia Winter Regatta will be held in Imperia, in the North West Italy. The town is in a magnificent position, in a mild and windy weather zone, ideal for sailing also during winter. Event organisers Porto Maurizio Yacht Club and Lega Navale Italiana sez. di Imperia will do their utmost to make it a special time for all people will join IWR 2005.

Event website www.i-w-r.com

Club website www.pmyc.it