

Italy. Imperia Winter Regatta ends with a perfect sailing day and wins for the Italian sailors

Monday, 11 December 2006

A perfect day for sailing! - the Jury chairman, German Wolfgang Stenz, said at the end of the last day of Imperia Winter Regatta 2006. The wind started to blow early in the morning up to 19/20 knots allowing us to complete the program.

At the end of the day some more four races had been sailed. All the best internationally ranked teams could keep the leadership of the results.

In 470 class, male division, Italian Zandonà/Trani was the winner of three races winning the overall results ahead of two other Italian teams, Dubbini brothers, second and Bertone/Malagugini, third.

In 470 female division the winner was again an Italian team, Conti/ Micol three times as well first across the finishing line and took the overall results ahead of a fleet of 54 boats. They were followed by two Finnish crews, Saarikallio/Lehtonen, second, and Saari/Wulff, third.

In 420 class, male division, the Italian Champion crew Mancinelli Scotti/De Felice won the results after the 6 races sailed and finishing ahead of German Hasselmann/Rojek, second, and French Cnuddle/Kerhascoet, third.

Dutch girls Krejzer/van Veen finished in the first position in 420 female division followed by German Lutz/Frisch, second and Italian Ziglioli/Privileggio, third.

The 2006 Imperia Winter Regatta has been perfectly directed by the International Jury with German Wolfgang Stenz, chairman, Nino Schmueli from Israel, Erich Michel, French Founette Pauthier and Italian Giorgio Fornaciari.

Today the young sailors of L'Equipe could sail only one race that was won by Italian team Telese/Ferraro.

Imperia Winter Regatta dates for 2007 are from 2nd to 9th December
