Imperia, Italy: Imperia Winter Regatta , the event organized by Yacht Club Imperia, is becoming the most important winter Mediterranean sailing race: the 21st edition will be held as usual in Oneglia Harbour starting on 4th and finishing on 8th December 2010.

An even bigger number of teams are expected to take part in the event coming from all over Europe countries: this year once again at least 350 crews will be at sea: the racing classes will be 420 (open and ladies), Olympic classes 470 (man and women) and Laser /Standard (man), Radial and Radial boys.

At the moment at least 50 teams have already entered the event and the teams are coming from Belgium, Finland, France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Switzerland, Ukraine,

As usual L'Equipe teams will race in Imperia taking part in the International Meeting.

As in the past editions the fleet will race on different sail areas in front of Imperia Harbour and races will be managed by an international jury: ten races are scheduled for 470 and Laser classes, nine for 420 and L'Equipe classes. -- Laura Jelmini
